Lesses.—Enter on Line 13 losses incurred in the trade or business, if not the season of the season o

The amount of depreciation on property acquired by purchase should be determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life, except if the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, it will be computed on the fair market value of such property as of that date or its original cost, whichever is greater. If the property was acquired in any other manner than by purchase, see Articles 201 to 210 of Regulations 74.

In case a deduction is claimed on account of depletion of mines, oil or gas wells, or timber, see Articles 221 to 257 of Regulations 74.

wells, or timber, see Articles 221 to 257 of Regulations 74.

Do not claim any deduction for depreciation in the value of a building occupied by you as a dwelling, or property held for personal use, nor for land (exclusive of improvements thereon), nor on stocks, bonds, and securities.

Rent, repairs, and other expenses.—Enter on Line 16 rent on business property in which you have no equity, ordinary repairs to keep the property in a usable condition, and other necessary business expenses not classified above, such as heat, light, and fire insurance. Do not include rent for a dwelling occupied by you for residential purposes, the cost of business equipment or furniture, expenditures for replacements or permanent improvements to property, nor personal, living, or family expenses.

erty, nor personal, living, or family expenses.

Deficit.—If the amount to be entered on Line 19 shows a deficit, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink.

3. INTEREST ON BANK DEPOSITS, ETC.

Enter as Item 3 all interest received or credited to your account during the taxable year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except interest on bonds upon which a tax was paid at the source. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

4. INTEREST ON TAX-FREE COVENANT BONDS

Enter as Item 4 bond interest upon which a tax was paid at source. A tax of 1½ per cent was paid at source on such interest if it was entered on Line 2 of Form 1000 which indicates that Item 39 will not exceed $4,000, or 2 per cent was paid if the interest was entered on Line 3 of Form 1000 which indicates that Item 39 will exceed $4,000. Such tax paid at source may be claimed as a credit in Item 53 on the return.

5 AND 6. INCOME FROM PARTNERSHIPS AND FIDUCIARIES

Enter as Item 5 your share (whether received or not) of the profits of a Enter as Item 5 your share (whether received or not) of the profits of a partnership, and as Item 6 income from an estate or trust, except that the share of (a) capital net gain or loss computed as provided in Instruction 8a shall be reported in Schedule D, (b) taxable interest on obligations of the United States shall be included in Schedule E, and (c) profits which consisted of dividends on stock of domestic corporations shall be included in Item 10, on the return. Include in Items 53 and 54, respectively, credits claimed for income tax paid at source, and foreign income taxes.

If the taxable year on the basis of which you file your return fails to coincide with the annual accounting period of the partnership or fiduciary, then you should include in your return your distributive share of the net profits for such accounting period ending within your taxable year. See Instruction 23.

7. INCOME FROM RENTS AND ROYALTIES

Fill in Schedule B, giving the information requested.

If you received property or crops in lieu of cash rent, report the income as though the rent had been received in cash. Crops received as rent on a cropshare basis should be reported as income for the year in which disposed of (unless your return shows income accrued).

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, or depletion sustained during the taxable year 1930, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2.

Other expenses, such as interest, taxes, fire insurance, fuel, light, labor, and other necessary expenses of this character should be itemized.

8. PROFIT FROM SALE OF REAL ESTATE, BONDS, ETC.

Describe the property briefly in Schedule C, and state the price received, or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses connected with the sale may be deducted in computing the profit or loss.

Enter the cost of the property, or if acquired prior to March 1, 1913, its fair market value as of that date, whichever is greater. Attach statement explaining how the value as of March 1, 1913, was determined. If the property was not acquired by purchase, see Articles 591 to 604 of Regulations 74.

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, obsolescence, or deple-If the property

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, obsolescence, or depletion which has been allowable in respect of such property since date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date.

Subsequent improvements include expenditures for additions, improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of stock or securities where you have acquired substantially identical property within 30 days before or after the date of such sale, unless you are a dealer in securities. In case the amount to be entered in Column 7 is a deductible loss, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink.

8a. CAPITAL NET GAIN OR LOSS

If desired, a capital net gain derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets may be computed separately and a tax of 12½ per cent paid thereon in lieu of the normal tax and surtax. The term "capital net gain" means the excess of the total amount of capital gain over the sum of (a) the capital deductions and capital losses, plus (b) the amount, if any, by which the ordinary deductions exceed the gross income computed without capital gain.

In case a capital net loss is sustained from the sale or exchange of capital and the total normal tax and surfax computed on the basis of the ordinary assets, the total normal tax and surtax computed on the basis of the ordinary net income shall be reduced by 12½ per cent of such capital net loss; but in no case shall the tax computed in this manner be less than the total normal tax and surtax that would be imposed without the benefit of this provision. The term "capital net loss" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus term "capital net loss" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus the capital deductions over the total amount of capital gain.

The term "capital assets" means property held by you for more than two years (whether or not connected with your trade or business), but does not include your stock in trade or other property of a kind which would properly be included in your inventory if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by you primarily for sale in the course of your trade or business.

Fill in Schedule D in accordance with Instruction 2 if the tax is computed.

Fill in Schedule D in accordance with Instruction 8, if the tax is computed under this provision, and enter 12½ per cent of the capital net gain or loss as Item 49 on page 1 of the return. In case of a capital net loss, the amount of such loss and the credit claimed should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink. See Articles 501 to 503 of Regulations 74.

9. INTEREST ON LIBERTY BONDS, ETC.

Schedule E should be filled in if you own any of the obligations or securities enumerated in Column 1. Enter in Column 2 all interest received or credited to your account during the year on these obligations, including your share of such interest received from a partnership, or an estate or trust, and enter in Column 3 the principal amounts of the various obligations owned.

Interest on all coupons falling due within the taxable year will be considered as income for the year, where the books are kept on a cash receipts and disbursements basis. If the books are kept on an accrual basis, report the actual amount of interest accrued on the obligations owned during the taxable year.

If the obligations enumerated on Line (d) are owned in excess of the exemption of $5,000, or any on Line (e) are owned, Columns 5 and 6 should be filled in, and the total of the interest reported on Lines (d) and (e), Column 6, entered as Item 9 on page 1 of the return.

10. DIVIDENDS

Enter as Item 10 the amount received as dividends (a) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 251 of the Act of 1928 and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, or (b) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that more than 50 per cent of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States, including your share of such dividends received on stock owned by a partnership, or an estate or trust.

11. OTHER INCOME

Enter as Item 11 all other taxable income for which no place is provided on the return, together with any dividends specifically excluded from Item 10.

12. TOTAL INCOME

Enter as Item 12 the net amount of Items 1 to 11, inclusive, after deducting any expenses reported in Item 1, and losses in Items 2, 5, 7, and 8.

13. INTEREST PAID

Enter as Item 13 interest paid on personal indebtedness as distinguished from business indebtedness (which should be deducted under Schedule A or B). Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred to purchase or carry obligations or securities the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation.

14. TAXES PAID

Enter as Item 14 personal taxes and taxes paid on property not used in your business or profession, not including those assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. Do not include Federal income taxes, taxes imposed upon your interest as shareholder of a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from you, nor income taxes claimed as a credit in Item 54.

21. PERSONS REQUIRED TO MAKE A RETURN OF INCOME.

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, whose gross income for the taxable year 1930 amounted to $5,000, or whose net income amounted to-

(a) $1,500 if single or if married and not living with husband or wife;
(b) $3,500 if married and living with husband or wife; or
(c) More than the personal exemption if status of taxpayer changes.

If an individual is single and the net income, including that of dependent minors, if any, is $1,500 or over, or if the gross income is $5,000 or over, a return must be filed. If the combined net income of husband and wife, and dependent minor children, if any, is $3,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, all such income must be reported on a joint return, or on separate returns of husband and wife. In case the husband and wife elect to file separate returns and their combined net income is $5,000 or over, each shall make a return on Form 1040.

return on Form 1040.

If the net income of a decedent to the date of his death was $1,500 or over, if unmarried, or $3,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or if his gross income for the period was $5,000 or over, the executor or administrator shall make a return for him on Form 1040 or 1040 A.

Income of (a) estates of decedents before final settlement, (b) trusts, whether created by will or deed, for unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests; or income held under the terms of the will or trust for future distribution, is taxed to the fiduciary as a single person, except that from the income of a decedent's estate there may be deducted any amount properly paid or credited to a beneficiary. to a beneficiary.

22. PERSONAL EXEMPTION AND CREDIT FOR DEPENDENTS

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $1,500. A person who was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife during the entire taxable year, may claim an exemption of $3,500. If husband and wife file separate returns, the exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A 'head of a family' is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who actually supports.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

In addition to the personal exemption, a credit of $400 may be claimed for each person (other than husband or wife) under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who was receiving his or her chief support from the taxpayer on the last day of the taxable year. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

In case the status of a taxpayer changes during the year, the personal exemption shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to $1,500 as the number of months the taxpayer was single bears to twelve months, plus an amount which bears the same ratio to $3,500 as the number of months the taxpayer was married and living with husband or wife, or was the head of a family, bears to twelve months. For this purpose a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a full month. The exemption shall not exceed $3,500 where the head of a family is married during the year.

In the case of an individual who dies during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit for dependents shall be determined by his or her status at the time of death. Full credits shall also be allowed to the surviving spouse according to his or her status at the close of the taxable year.

Where a return is filed on Form 1040 for an estate in process of administration, or for a trust, an exemption of $1,500 may be claimed.

23. COMPUTATION OF TAX

-In computing the tax on your net income you may claim Earned income .-

Earned income.—In computing the tax on your net income you may claim a credit of 25 per cent of the tax on your earned net income.

To determine this credit, compute the tax on your earned net income in Items 21 to 31 on page 1 of the return, as if it were your entire net income. Items 32 and 51 will be 25 per cent of Item 31, or 25 per cent of the sum of Items 30, 44, 45, and 46, whichever amount is the smaller.

Earned income may consist of amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered, or an amount not in excess of 20 per cent of the net profits derived by you from a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income-producing factors.

If your net income is not more than $5,000, the entire amount shall be considered as earned net income, or if your net income is more than $5,000, the earned net income shall not be considered to be less than $5,000. In no case shall the earned net income be more than $30,000.

Fiscal year income from a partnership or fiduciary.—If income is received case shall the earned net income be more than $30,000.

Fiscal year income from a partnership or fiduciary.—If income is received from a partnership, or an estate or trust, which makes its return for a fiscal year ending in 1930, the income attributable to 1930 shall be added to your other income for that year and taxed at the lower normal tax and surtax rates applicable to 1930, and the income attributable to 1929 shall be taxed at the next higher normal tax and surtax rates applicable to 1929. In case all of your personal exemption and credit for dependents was not required in computing the tax for 1930, the balance may be applied against the income attributable to 1929.

Income tax paid to a foreign country or U.S. passession—If a credit in Income tax paid to a foreign country or U. S. possession.—If a credit is claimed in Item 54 for income tax paid to a foreign country or a possession of the United States, submit Form 1116 with your return.

Surtax.—The surtax for any amount of net income not shown in the table below is computed by adding to the surtax for the largest amount shown which is less than the income, the surtax upon the excess over that amount at the rate indicated in the table.

In the case of bona fide sale of mines, oil or gas wells, or any interest therein, the surtax on the profit shall not exceed 16 per cent of the selling price. See Article 511 of Regulations 74.

25. ACCRUED OR RECEIVED INCOME

If your books of account are kept on an accrual basis, report all income accrued, even though it has not been actually received or entered on the books, and expenses incurred instead of expenses paid.

If your books do not show income accrued and expenses incurred, report all income received or constructively received, such as bank interest credited to

26. PERIOD TO BE COVERED BY RETURN

Your return for the calendar year 1930 shall be made on Form 1949. If the return is for a fiscal year ending on the last day of any month, other than December, in 1930, Form 1040FY should be used.

The accounting period established must be adhered to for subsequent years, unless permission was received from the Commissioner to make a change.

An application for a change in the accounting period shall be made on Form 1128 and forwarded to the Collector prior to the expiration of thirty days from the close of the proposed taxable year.

27. AFFIDAVIT

The affidavit must be executed by the person whose income is reported unless he is ill, absent from the country, or otherwise incapacitated, in which case the legal representative or agent may execute the affidavit. A minor, however, making his own return must execute the affidavit.

The oath will be administered without charge by any collector, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent. If an internal revenue officer is not available, the return should be sworn to before a notary public, justice of the peace, or other person authorized to administer oaths.

28. WHEN AND WHERE THE RETURN MUST BE FILED

The return must be sent to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which you live or have your principal place of business, so as to reach the Collector's office on or before March 15, 1931. In case you have no legal residence or place of business in the United States, the return should be forwarded to the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

29. WHEN AND TO WHOM THE TAX MUST BE PAID

The tax should be paid, if possible, by sending or bringing with the return a check or money order drawn to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue at (insert city and State)." Do not send cash by mail, nor pay it in person, except at the Collector's office. The tax may be paid when the return is filed, or in four equal installments, as follows: The first installment shall be paid on or before March 15, 1931, the second installment shall be paid on or before June 15, 1931, the third installment on or before September 15, 1931, and the fourth installment on or before December 15, 1931.

If any installment is not paid on the date fixed for payment the whole amount of tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand by the Collector.

30. PENALTIES

For willful failure to make and file a return on time.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and, in addition,
25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For willfully making a false or fraudulent return.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and, in addition, 50 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For deficiency in tax.—Interest on deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth day after the filing of a waiver of the right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.
